

HANDCROSS BAND SHOW

Handcross and District Band Concert was a resounding success at Crawley Civic Hall on Friday.

Well over 100 people attended and the compere was Mr Roger Ray.

A student bandsman from the Royal Military School of Music at Kneller Hall, Twickenham, played a flute solo by Handel, and the band played jazz numbers, quartets and solos. Bandmaster was Mr S. Gasson.

Barbara Northcott contributed songs and a novelty version of the Pied Piper involved children from the audience beating out the rhythm.

The audience also joined in with old favourites from the early twenties and Black and White Minstrel songs, led by Roger Ray.

Teas were served by Mrs Flindell, Mrs Berry and Mrs Harry.
